B.I.S. Human Learning and Development

Internship (3-9 hours)
Choose from the following repeatable courses

- EDUC 4982 Undergraduate Research in Urban Education (3)
- EDUC 4670 Internship in Human Learning and Development (3)

Internship is a required component of degree work in the BIS HLD program.
Disciplines in BIS HLD

- Behavior and Learning Disabilities
- Child Growth and Development
- Counseling
- Deaf Studies
- Educational Psychology
- Family and Community Literacy
- Learning Technology
- Research Methods and Problem Solving
- Physical Activity, Health, & Wellness (Not available as an option starting Fall 2016)
- Sport Coaching and Human Performance (Not available as an option starting Fall 2016)

Students need to complete 3-9 hours of internship related to one or more of their chosen disciplines shown above.
Students can choose to do a research internship with faculty through EDUC 4982 Undergraduate Research in Urban Education (3)

- Pre-/co-requisite: EPRS 4900
- On-campus with faculty doing research
- 5-7 hours weekly (10-14 hr in the summer)
- Attend class and complete assignments for class (e.g., group presentation, poster presentation, reflection paper)
- Submit Time Sheet
EDUC 4670 Internship in Human Learning and Development (3)

- Prerequisite: EDUC 3100
- At a site in the community
- Student chooses the site and submits paperwork
- 10 hours per week in the field (20 hr in the summer)
- No class meetings except for one-time meeting at beginning of the semester
- Submit weekly reflections
- Submit Hours Log, supervisor evaluation at mid & endpoints of semester
- Presentation of experiences gained/insights learned from the field

For suggested sites and more information about the application process and paperwork to submit, please see:
https://gsu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_1zQqLrYPLUmm2ep